feast of the dedication	ἐγκαίνια	1456	2597	Initiation, of a house; the altar, a dedicatory sacrifice. Root (קָנַח / 2596) kha-nakh – To make narrow, to be narrow. To put something into the mouth, to give to be tasted; then by a common metaphor, in which taste is applied to understanding. To imbue some one with anything, to instruct, to train up, to instruct, to train. Pro. 22:6, “train up a child according to his way,” as to his manners and habits. It is thus applied to inanimate things, hence – to initiate, a house (that is to dedicate, or to commence to use). To dedicate the Temple.
