Justice, as of a king, as shown both in punishing the wicked, and in freeing, vindicating, and rewarding the godly. Things done justly. Righteousness, piety, virtue.

TRANSLATION:

Commit to His care by casting and throwing upon Yahweh the thing that He gave you, the thing He placed on you; your lot in life and He will protect, defend, nourish, sustain, and provide for you with sustenance and at no time for all eternity will He allow the righteous, pious or virtuous to totter, shake or fall.

NOTE: The word burden is a little off . . . It is our lot in life!
