And casting their cares, they confide in and set their hope on You and are secure, fearing nothing. They see and perceive having acquired knowledge through an intimate face to face experience. They bring to mind Your authority and everything that Your name represents, for You will not let go, You will not leave or desert them, nor leave in the hands of someone else, those who constantly beat a path seeking, inquiring and caring for Your words. They continually care for, reverence and worship Yahweh.
